Travel Notes, Tips and Welcome

The world has changed over the last few years but Ireland remains as green and beautiful as ever. After much hard work by the CBA Seminar/Travel Committee, we have been able to secure our return to Ashford Castle and Dublin. Unfortunately there is limited space so sign up early. For those lucky to make the trip, remember it will be fall so break out those warm sweaters and jackets. For the Ashford Castle dinners in the formal dining room, a blazer or coat is a requirement. For our final farewell dinner at the Castle, we are going to do a Victorian Dinner (our treat – drinks not included) so you are encouraged (not required) to bring a period costume or formal wear. We will have prizes for best and most creative costumes. On past trips we have seen some great outfits. We look forward to seeing you all there. The CBA Seminar/Travel Committee.

DISCLAIMER

In that, we are traveling to a foreign country whose culture, customs, habits, and lifestyle may be different than those of the U.S., we wish to advise you that we cannot guarantee the availability of non-smoking rooms, wheelchair/handicap access, quality of service, or noise restrictions. Music from nightclubs, other guests of the hotel and/or animals in their natural habitat, may produce noise at earlier or later hours than might be expected by us in the U.S., who may anticipate curfews and other regulations set by the hotels.

If Festival Travel/CBA is made aware, prior to departure, of any fact or event that might affect the quiet enjoyment of your hotel accommodations, we will advise you in advance, so you may respond in the manner you see fit, up to and including cancellation of your reservation. Otherwise, please understand that once on site, Festival Travel/CBA cannot compel the hotel to change their customs and habits to suit our group's specific wishes, nor can the hotel be held financially responsible for any inconvenience or discomfort caused as a result of local cultural norms. OCBA will require all attendees, including guests and/or whether attending seminars or not, to sign a release form.
